Autumn Exhibition

Autumn is upon us and so too this aptly named exhibition of not only autumnal tones especially on the central walls, but of a vital array of works across the spectrum of subject and medium from around NZ.

Particularly impacting is the obvious development of some artists with a new strong presence as if breaking out of lockdown and levels and shouting a freshly found freedom.

The progression through the galleries is a journey of revelation. Linger at the entrance and be entranced by magical large scale photography juxtaposed with intimate poetry in paint on one wall and sublime still life on the opposite. The spaces beyond move from a contemporary selection to evocative landscape and onward to bold and bright works drawing the viewer to the annex and an installation that intrigues. Interspersed are 3D pieces on plinths that may be sophisticated, quirky, endearing or exquisite. Towards and within LightSpace is a symphony of the dramatic and colourful with quiet pauses and reflections. Treasures abound.

Such a celebration of the artistic spirit can only be achieved by a team to whom I am indebted. Curatorial collaboration with Rob Sullivan was immensely helpful in assembling a vast number of diverse works in limited time. Thanks to all and to the artists whose creativity adorns these wonderful Academy Galleries.
