

Gabrielle Ridgway Evans

Artist Statement

Gabrielle is a contemporary mixed media artist who has been painting since 1996. She is well known for her mixed media abstracts and has exhibited in galleries around New Zealand,

Her paintings are in public and private collections in New Zealand, Australia, Singapore, Canada, France, The Netherlands, Germany, UK and the US. Gabrielle has a Bachelor of Arts from Victoria University majoring in Art History and worked for 8 years at The Dowse Art Museum. She is influenced by art history, history, poetry and literature.

Gabrielle is an avid collector of vintage ephemera and images which she uses as collage in her mixed media paintings. She often uses text from poetry and old song music sheets.

Her current process is layering of images, text, paint, inks, stencilling and handmade papers. Her intention is to intrigue the viewer to look deeper into the layers which both conceal and reveal.

Merit Award - Autumn 2020
Signum (Multimedia)

